

Kevin E. Bennet

Chairman, Division of Engineering
Mayo Clinic

507-538-0787

kbennet@mayo.edu

Mr. Kevin E. Bennet is the Chairman of the Division of Engineering of the Mayo Clinic of Rochester, Minnesota. His division, composed of over 50 technical staff including engineers and programmers, is responsible for the development and application of technology for research, infrastructure and clinical practice.

Mr. Bennet joined the Mayo Clinic in 1990 with current and past appointments as Chair of Strategic Alliances, Vice Chair of Information Technology Standards & Architecture Subcommittee, Clinical Practice Committee Equipment Subcommittee, Information Technology Coordinating Executive Committee, Pharmacy and Therapeutics Committee, Medical/Industry Relations Committee as well as chair and membership in various workgroups and taskforces. He has also served as a reviewer of Mayo Clinic Proceedings and the NIH Small Business Innovation Research program.

He has over 25 years of experience in technology development with organizations including W.R. Grace & Co., Exxon International and Amoco Chemicals. He has been a consultant to the National Institutes of Health and served on NIH site visit teams. He holds patents concerning semiconductor and optical technology has founded several technology-based companies.

Mr. Bennet received a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemical Engineering from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (1976) and a Masters of Business Administration from Harvard Business School (1980).